IF YOU LIKE IT DEEP, spacious and trippy, keep your eyes peeled for Claude Von Stroke's new experimental techno imprint Mothership. Inspired by the Electrifying Mojo's famed '80s radio show in Detroit, Mothership is all about pushing boundaries and looking forward. Claude has promised that much of the label's profit will be ploughed back into Detroit's community music school. The first release on Mothership comes from the Italoboyz and drops late October.

SOUTH LONDON deep house imprint Artizan have just scored themselves a mighty fine act. The Smoke comprises Faith types Dave Jarvis and Terry Farley alongside Ballistic Brothers' Uschi Classen. Suffice to say Artizan are stoked with this new signing. The first fruits of their labour should see the light of day in November.
